

The Connecticut chapter of the National Lawyers Guild presents:

Practicing Law in Bush's Cowboy Republic: Challenges to Progressive Lawyering

Marjorie Cohn, Keynote Speaker

Marjorie Cohn is president of the National Lawyers Guild and a professor at Thomas Jefferson School of Law, where she teaches criminal law and procedure, evidence, and international human rights law. She lectures throughout the world on human rights and US foreign policy. Marjorie Cohn is the author of the new book "Cowboy Republic: Six Ways the Bush Gang Has Defied the Law."

After the keynote, Marjorie will join a panel of Connecticut attorneys from different practice areas as they discuss government attacks on immigrants, the poor and people of color, and the challenge of being a progressive lawyer in 2007. This timely and important discussion is open to members of the legal community and the general public. The panel will be followed by a reception.

WHEN: Saturday, September 8 from 1:00 – 5:00PM

WHERE: Grand Courtroom, Quinnipiac University School of Law
275 Mount Carmel Avenue, Hamden, Connecticut

The National Lawyers Guild is an association dedicated to the need for basic change in the structure of our political and economic system. We seek to unite the lawyers, law students, legal workers and jailhouse lawyers of America in an organization that shall function as an effective political and social force in the service of the people, to the end that human rights shall be regarded as more sacred than property interests. ~ from the National Lawyers Guild preamble
